

Ms Hiral Matalia

Hiral considers herself to be blessed since she's able to live her passion through her work which involves making a positive difference into people's lives. She's a professional soft skills and behavioral facilitator/trainer who has been in this field since 2007 and has had the opportunity to have touched over 3,000+ lives in this span.

Hiral has designed and executed over 500 training workshops across industry all over India empowering lives and unlocking human potential through classroom and outbound training, workshops and seminars on topics ranging from customer service to emotional intelligence, from psychometric assessments to outbound experiential learning workshops and from communication skills to leadership and so on.

Her strive to make a difference has led her to become a certified life coach wherein she ensures translation of action plan into action and enhances effectiveness of her participants through one on one interaction which turns out to be a holistic transformation initiative.

To succeed, you have to believe in something with such a passion that it becomes a reality.

Hiral as a certified coach, certified psychometric assessor for Extended DISC and 16 other tests and NLP certified trainer brings such understanding of human minds that she never fails to sensitize her audience and help them to transform into a more productive, concrete and an accomplished human being through self-awareness and measurable deliverables.

Hiral absolutely believes that when you give more than what you expect to get, your life's true purpose comes into being and she tries to walk the talk.

She brings this passion and conviction in everything she does. Her core strength is the way she connects and inspires the audience.

On the intellectual dimension, she is well-read, dynamic, good at establishing relevance, dynamic and truly loves her work. On the interpersonal side, she puts herself in participant's shoes, develops good rapport and encourages questions and discussion.
